

Snowy owls: Winter Break

ANSWERS

1. A French Explorer

The bust of Samuel de Champlain is in the Salon de la Francophonie, a committee room off the main hallway at the beginning of the virtual tour.

2. A French King

The portrait of Louis XIV is in the Salon de la Francophonie, a committee room off the main hallway at the beginning of the virtual tour.

3. Depictions of Queen Elizabeth II

There are three depictions of Queen Elizabeth in the Senate foyer: a painted portrait of her as a young woman on the wall, a sculpture portrait of her face carved into one of the pillars near the Senate Chamber entrance, and the Jubilee window above the door.

4. Senate Foyer Typo

The word "Quelq'un" is misspelled on the Senate foyer ceiling. It should be spelled "Quelqu'un".

5. A King Who Abdicated

The portrait of King Edward VIII (later known as the Duke of Windsor) is located opposite the Senate Chamber doors in the Senate foyer.

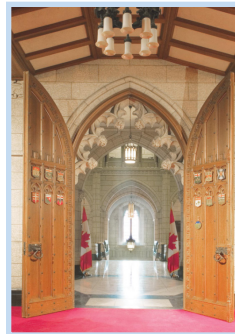

6. Fancy Wrought Iron Tools in the Speaker's Office

The tools are located next to the fireplace in the Speaker's Office.

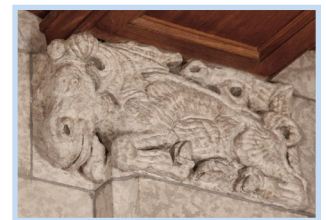

7. Portrait of King George V's Consort

The portrait of Queen Mary of Teck is located on the second floor, above the Senate foyer with the other consort portraits.

8. A Territorial Shield

The last territory to join Confederation was Nunavut (1999). The shield is the round one on the bottom of the Senate Chamber door.

9. Animal Carvings

The four animal carvings are in the Senate Antechamber (just outside of the Chamber) in the corners near the ceiling.

10. Canada's First Female Senator

The bust of Cairine Wilson, the first female senator, is in the Senate Antechamber, on the left side of the room.

11. A First Nation Senator

The bust of James Gladstone, the first First Nation senator, is in the Senate Antechamber, right beside the entrance to the Senate Chamber.

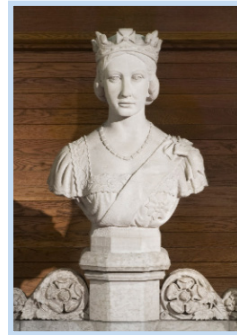

12. Grotesques

The four grotesques are located above the entrance doors to the Senate Chamber, two on the outside and two on the inside.

13. Ottawa Senators Logo

The Ottawa Senators logo is carved into the wood below the clock above the entrance to the Senate Chamber.

14. A Marble Bust of Queen Victoria

The bust of Queen Victoria is located at the front of the Senate Chamber, above the thrones and Speaker's Chair (the three chairs).

15. A Welsh dragon

The Welsh dragon is located on the Senate Chamber ceiling.